Broward County Police Benevolent Association Announces General Election Endorsements

Follow the election at #VotethePBAway

Hollywood, Fla. – October 14, 2014 – The BCPBA has announced its support for candidates running in the General Election on November 4, 2014. The organization further advises a “yes” vote on the Broward County School District Bond issue and a “yes” vote to reauthorized The Children’s Services Council of Broward County.

“We are asking our members and friends to vote for pro law enforcement candidates many of whom have proven track records of supporting issues relevant to officers and their families. A vote that is pro law enforcement is a vote for public safety,” said BCPBA President, Jeff Marano.

Election news and updates from the BCPBA may be followed using the hashtag #VoteThePBAway on Twitter @goBCPBA and on the BCPBA Facebook page.
