Who Is The Client?
The plan participant is the client under the terms of the Prepaid Legal Assistance Plan. The plan sponsor, the Broward County PBA, will have no influence over the attorney/client relationship.

Cooperation of Client
The firm’s duty to render services shall be subject to the participant’s compliance with the reasonable requests of the firm in a manner normally associated with an attorney/client relationship.

Other Counsel
All plan participants are free to use non-plan attorneys for any matter, whether or not it is covered by the plan. However, the participant shall receive no reimbursement from the plan for such representation.

No Guarantee
The Florida Bar does not guarantee in any way the success of the plan and gives no assurance of the quantity or quality of legal services to be provided. Total responsibility for the delivery of services rests with the plan’s sponsor and the attorneys in their individual attorney/client relationship.

Adequacy of Fees
The fees to be charged under this plan are neither inadequate nor excessive.

Disposition of Funds
All funds paid into the plan shall be deposited in a bank, savings and loan association, trust company or other appropriate financial institution in the State of Florida, or the firm will provide assurances for the protection of the funds paid into the plan until they are properly disbursed pursuant to the plan agreement. Funds paid as an advance on costs or as a retainer shall not be disbursed until there is an obligation to pay for the costs or until the fee represented by the retainer has been earned by the firm.

Costs
Rendering of the services set forth herein shall be subject to payment by the participant of all costs required in conjunction with regard to services rendered. The firm may require, as a condition precedent to performing the services, a cost deposit estimated by the firm to be in an amount sufficient to cover the required costs associated with the rendering of such services. Such a deposit may include, but is not limited to, estimated fees, a retainer and/or legal expense costs (court, deposition and court reporter fees), and other such customary costs associated with the delivery of various legal services.

Conflicts of Interest
If a participant wants to retain the firm for representation that would violate the Florida Bar’s Code of Ethics or that would result in a representation deemed to be adverse to pre-existing clients of the firm, including other plan participants, the firm will be unable to represent that participant, and no PLAP benefits will be delivered to him/her in that particular dispute. The firm will attempt to refer said participant to another competent non-firm Florida Bar attorney.

Requests for PLAP service may be made through online forms located at the BCPBA.org website or by calling or visiting the BCPBA office.
Broward County PBA Prepaid Legal Assistance Plan (PLAP)

The Broward County PBA recognizes that our members have daily exposure to lawsuits and other legal matters that affect both their business and personal affairs and are often in need of legal assistance.

The Law Offices of Michael Braverman, P.A.

Legal services for the PLAP are rendered by Michael Braverman, P.A., which is authorized to engage in the practice of law within the State of Florida.

Michael Braverman was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1988. He worked for the Dade County Police Benevolent Association from 1986-1996, serving as the Dade PBA’s General Counsel from 1993-1996.

Mr. Braverman is familiar with all aspects of the Law Enforcement Bill of Rights. A large percentage of his practice focuses on administrative law, certification/licensing (FDLE), collective bargaining and public sector labor law.

Who is eligible for the Prepaid Legal Assistance Plan?

All members in good standing with the Broward County PBA who have been members for at least thirty (30) days are entitled to PLAP benefits upon certification of eligibility.

Anyone receiving benefits under the PLAP shall be known as a Plan Participant (Participant).
