When an alleged grievance exists, the following formal grievance procedure shall be followed:

1. STEP 1—The grieving party may submit to the immediate supervisor a copy of the grievance form. Within seven (7) working days of receipt of the grievance, the immediate supervisor shall schedule a meeting with the PBA and/or grieving party in an effort to resolve the grievance. The immediate supervisor shall indicate the disposition of the grievance in writing within seven (7) working days after such meeting, and shall furnish a copy thereof to the PBA and/or grieving party.
2. STEP 2—If the grieving party is not satisfied with the Step 1 disposition of the grievance, or if no disposition has been made within the Step 1 time limits, the grievance shall be submitted to the Employee Relations Department within seven (7) working days of the disposition, or expiration of the time limit. Within seven (7) working days of receipt of the grievance, Employee Relations shall schedule a meeting with the PBA and/or grieving party and shall indicate the disposition of the grievance in writing to the PBA and/or grieving party within seven (7) working days of the meeting.
3. STEP 3— If the grieving party is not satisfied with the Step 2 disposition of the grievance, the grievance may be submitted by the PBA to arbitration within twelve (12) working days of the date of disposition at Step 2.

F. Arbitration

The grieving party shall request a list of seven (7) arbitrators from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS). The arbitrator shall be mutually selected from the list submitted by the FMCS in accordance with its rules, which rules shall likewise govern the arbitration proceedings. The parties agree that the award of the arbitrator shall be in writing and shall be final and binding.

The arbitrator shall not substitute his/her judgment for that of the employer. The arbitrator shall limit his/her decision to the application and interpretation of this agreement and shall have no power to amend, modify, nullify, alter, add to, or subtract from the terms of this Agreement. The parties shall meet for a pre-arbitration meeting for the purpose of full disclosure. Neither party shall be permitted to assert in such arbitration proceedings any ground or rely on any evidence not previously disclosed to the other party. Both parties agree that the award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding.

The grievance arbitration procedure shall be subject to all State and Federal laws and judicial interpretations.

If the PBA waives its right to process a grievance to arbitration because the affected employee is not a dues-paying member of the PBA, the employee may carry the case forward but he/she shall be responsible for all arbitration costs pursuant to Section G. Under such circumstances, the PBA shall not be responsible for arbitration costs associated with the specific grievance.

- G. Cost of Arbitration: If the arbitrator sustains the position of the PBA and/or grieving party, the fees and expenses of the arbitrator, including FMCS filing fees, shall be paid by the Board. However, if the arbitrator sustains the Board's position, all fees and expenses shall be paid by the PBA and/or grieving party. If the decision issued by the arbitrator is not the one requested by either party, the arbitrator shall determine the distribution of his/her fees between the parties. Each party shall be responsible for any other expense it chooses to incur, including but not limited to expert witness fees, travel expenses, etc. Employees required to testify will be made available without loss of pay; however, whenever possible, they will be placed on call to minimize time lost from work.
